2022 VCS Scholarships Awarded

Newport News, VA, June 20, 2022 (PR-8)

In November 2009, The Virginia Choral Society (VCS) established the VCS Scholarship Award for a high school graduating senior who desired to continue his/her education with a focus on music performance or education. In 2018, VCS added a second scholarship, the Ronald D. Darone Memorial Scholarship. This year a single award for Music Scholarship was awarded. The award of $2500 was funded in equal part by the supporters of the Virginia Choral Society and the family of Ronald D. Darone in his memory.

VCS is pleased to announce that Rebecca Imbasciani was selected for the 2022 VCS Music Scholarship Award in the amount of $2,500. Rebecca Imbasciani is a senior at Poquoson High School that is honored to have been awarded the Virginia Choral Society scholarship. She is the alto vocal captain of Evolution Show Choir and has been in school choirs since the 3rd grade; participating in district choir since 8th grade, All-State Choir her junior and senior year, and Honors Choir her senior year. She is her school's Tri-M Music Honors Society historian, a member of the International Thespian Honors Society, and will be playing Justice in Poquoson High's upcoming musical, "Rock of Ages". Rebecca is excited to be attending James Madison University in the fall to study Music Theatre.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Additional information regarding the Virginia Choral Society is provided on our webpage: www.vachoralsociety.org and on the VCS Concert Line at 851-9114.

ABOUT VCS: The Virginia Choral Society (VCS), active since 1931, is the largest continually performing community arts organization on the Peninsula. VCS is an IRS 501 (c) 3 code non-profit organization of about 90 singers, sustained by the generosity of grants from arts commissions, individual gifts, corporate funding and concert ticket sales.
